"GIVING SHELTER"
Benefiting the Washington Humane Society

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Architects for Animals is a fundraising and awareness initiative that supports needy animals. "Giving Shelter" is a one-night event that will benefit the Washington Humane Society, a 501(c) (3) non-profit tax exempt organization. Participating architectural design firms build and donate creative outdoor winter shelters to provide DC's community cats with refuge from the season's freezing temperatures. At the event these shelters will be on display to the public and at the end of the evening all shelters will be donated to care givers who work with the Washington Humane Society. The shelters will be distributed throughout DC to be utilized by community cats.

Last year's event which was held in New York City garnered press that included: NY Times, NY1, The Huffington Post, The NY Post, The NY Daily News, NPR, Fast Company, ENR, Architectural Digest, Interior Design, Otto Otto, E-occulus, and Office Insight to name a few.
